

The Institute of Bankers
in South Africa

Why be a member of the IOB?

► Who is the IOB?

A formidable partner to the banking and financial service industry. Since its inception, the Institute endeavours to enhance the professional competence within the banking and financial services industry by delivering (through its partnership with Milpark Business School) vocational and academic programmes of high quality to an ever-changing financial landscape.

► IOB's Vision

To be recognised as a Centre of Excellence enhancing the standards of professionalism, skills and competencies for a globally competitive financial services sector.

Staying abreast of trends and developments in training and education in the financial services domain is very important to the IOB. The IOB continues to develop learning pathways to foster the culture of life long learning.

The IOB is the only Professional Body dedicated to the Financial Services Sector.

► Membership offering:

- The membership to the Banking Sector's professional body, that has been in existence for 105 years.
- National recognition Professional designations, such as the CAIB (SA).
- Dissemination of information to members is very important to the IOB, who communicates with members through:
 - The SA Banker, a quarterly publication distributed to 17 500 people. The SA Banker's vision: To be a Financial Services Sector relevant and trusted publication, discussing up-to-date industry news, written by industry specialists, to appeal to readers of the sector and members of the IOB,
 - IOB Talk, an electronic newsletter emailed to 8 500 members,
 - and the IOB website, www.iob.co.za
 - Networking and Information sharing sessions:
 - Breakfasts
 - Half day seminars
 - IOB Alumni