MODULE DESCRIPTIONS

Compulsory

Integrated Public Service Project IPSP01-8

This module aims to provide students with the ability to integrate their knowledge and skills in order to research a problem in the public service context and to make informed recommendations based on analysis. Based on the problem and recommendations, students will outline a project with an implementation and a monitoring schedule. Students will be equipped with information-processing, research and project management skills in order to complete the final project report.

Programme Monitoring and Evaluation PMEV01-8

The public expect and demand accountability from the public service. In order to assess the outcomes of governance efforts with the aim of improving public sector performance, Government develops and implements monitoring and evaluation (M&E) systems. This module introduces students to the challenges of implementing monitoring and evaluation in the South African public sector and aims to build competence in information-gathering, interpretation and evaluation skills.

Public Financial Accountability PFIA01-8

This course introduces participants to key theoretical concepts in public finance, as well as providing an opportunity to analyse applied public finance issues in the South African context. It explores the application of financial management techniques in the public sector setting.

Public Sector Leadership PSEL01-8

Once students have completed this Public Sector Leadership module, they should have a good theoretical and practical knowledge and understanding of leadership and how it applies in the public environment. Students will gain knowledge in individual differences such as personality, attitudes, abilities and emotions. The concepts of perception and attributions, as well as motivation through needs, job design and satisfaction are covered. Students will gain knowledge in the areas of groups and social processes.

Strategic Public Management and Governance SPMG01-8

This module is aimed at providing students with essential knowledge of the contribution of strategy across the broad mandate of the public sector. Fundamental tools for the strategic analysis of the external and internal environment of the public sector are presented. Students will develop a thorough understanding of the strategic thinking process.

Strategic Public Sector People Management SPSP01-8

Human resources shortfalls are eroding the ability of many government departments (or organisations), adversely affecting employees' ability to perform their tasks economically, efficiently and effectively. Organisations that acquire, develop and retain high-performing employees with the appropriate skills and competencies are better able to respond to the needs of their stakeholders and changes in their external environment. The module is aimed at equipping students to become organisational leaders through people management. The module therefore aims to assist students with using human resources effectively, and determining how well human resources are integrated into daily decision-making and planning for the departmental results that need to be achieved. Towards that goal, the module highlights the importance of a sustained commitment by the department or sector's leaders to maximise the value of their human resources and manage related risks.

Electives

Development Economics DEVS01-8

The module aims to introduce participants to the macroeconomic challenges of developing countries, such as inequality, growth, poverty and international trade. The module highlights particular development management challenges and their impact on prospects for long-term socio-economic development for emerging economies like South Africa. Students would be exposed to the concepts and policy challenges related to the causes and characteristics of the development of nations. ## STUDENT SUPPORT

Library Access

The Milpark Library provides access to e-books in a virtual library called Cyberlibris (Scholartext). Lecturers may create smart bookshelves per course or module for students to access (these shelves can contain prescribed and recommended books). Students can also create their own personal smart bookshelves containing resources for their studies. Having access to a digital library means that thousands of students can access books and resources from anywhere at the same time online. There is no need to make reservations and requests, and no limit on the time a student has to access a book. With the implementation of Cyberlibris, students also have access to full-text resources via ProQuest (global), Ebsco (global) and Sabinet (South African publications) to assist with research and enrich their learning experience. Access to the Library is included in the module fee.

Tutor

Comprehensive student support services are available. Students are provided with administrative support by Student Services. To assist with understanding content, students have access to tutors whom they can contact individually. Students who experience study and/or personal problems have access to a student counsellor. All support services are available to registered students via myMilpark (myCourses).
