DESCRIPTION

PROGRAMME PURPOSE

The 21st century has ushered in not only worldwide challenges and uncertainty, but also vast opportunities for the astute entrepreneur to capitalise on. The New Venture Creation course has been designed with those entrepreneurs in mind. This course is about the actual process of getting a new venture started, growing the venture, successfully harvesting it, and starting again.

The purpose of the New Venture Creation course is to expose the prospecting entrepreneur to many of the vital issues and immerse them in key learning experiences, such as a critical self-assessment and the development of a business plan. By fully engaging in the course, you can significantly shorten your learning curve, reduce risk, and gain a lot more from the ensuing hands-on experiences.

PROGRAMME OUTCOMES

Once you have successfully completed this course, you will be able to:

1. Demonstrate an understanding of the multifaceted nature of the entrepreneur.
2. Craft a personal entrepreneurial strategy.
3. Demonstrate an understanding of the entrepreneurial process.
4. Demonstrate how to identify, create, shape, screen and seize a sustainable opportunity.
5. Demonstrate an understanding of social entrepreneurship and identify the opportunities it presents.
6. Apply the requirements needed for writing up a business plan.
7. Demonstrate an understanding of the entrepreneurial leader; the building of effective teams and the ethical dilemmas in entrepreneurship.
8. Demonstrate an understanding of the different factors that should be considered when financing entrepreneurial ventures.

3. Microsoft Word
4. The means to open and read PDF documents
5. The means to scan and upload documents
6. Email/cellphone for notification and communication.

STUDENT SUPPORT

Library access

The Milpark Library now provides access to e-books in a virtual library called Cyberlibris (Scholartext). Lecturers may create smart bookshelves per course or module for students to access (these shelves can contain prescribed and recommended books). Students can also create their own personal smart bookshelves containing resources for their studies. Having access to a digital library means that thousands of students can access books and resources from anywhere at the same time online. There is no need to make reservations and requests, and no limit to the time a student has to access a book. With the implementation of Cyberlibris, students also have access to full-text resources via Emerald (global), Ebsco (global) and Sabinet (South African publications) to assist with research and to enrich their learning experience. Access to the Library is included in the module fee.

Tutor

Comprehensive student support services are available. Students are provided with administrative support by Student Services. To assist with understanding content, students have access to tutors whom they can contact individually. Students who experience study and/or personal problems have access to a student counsellor. All support services are available to registered students via myMilpark (myCourses).

ASSESSMENT

An integrated approach to assessment is applied. The practical nature of the course is emphasised in all assessments.

The following are examples of assessments/activities that you could be exposed to during your course:

- Online quiz or online test
- Individual and/or group assignments with open-ended questions
- Online discussion forums with other students and your course lecturer
- Watching videos and summarising the main points
- Reading and engaging with study material, articles or information on websites
- Researching a specific topic and summarising your findings.

The exact structure of your assessments will be communicated to you in a detailed assessment plan when the course commences. A minimum final mark of 50% will be required in order to successfully complete the course.

DURATION

This course will run over a period of six weeks, running from Tuesday to Monday every week.

CERTIFICATION

Upon successful completion of the study programme and internal assessments, candidates will be awarded the Short Course Certificate in New Venture Creation.

FURTHER STUDIES

Students who have successfully completed this short course certificate may articulate onto other short courses. Students may at any time apply for admission to any of Milpark's further or higher education qualifications, where they may be admitted, subject to the admission requirements of each qualification.

PRICING

The course fees include access to the online environment (including library services) for the full duration of the course, all study material, access to the lecturer online and one cycle of assessments.
